ARTICLING STUDENT JOB POSTING

---

Position: Articling Student

Salary: $55,000

Start Date: Spring/Summer 2026

About Us:

Kingston Community Legal Clinic (KCLC) is a non-profit community legal clinic serving low-income residents of the City of Kingston, and the Townships of South Frontenac and Frontenac Islands. KCLC provides services primarily in the areas of residential tenancies law and social assistance law. We are a busy, client-centred office committed to justice for low-income individuals. More information about KCLC can be found at www.kclc.ca.

Position Summary:

KCLC is seeking an Articling Student on a 10-month contract.

Under the supervision of clinic lawyers, the articling student will gain extensive litigation experience. The successful candidate will manage a high volume of files, assume carriage of their own matters, and provide advice and representation directly to some of Kingston's most vulnerable individuals.

Qualifications:

- Eligible to undertake articles in Ontario
- Ability to work both independently and collaboratively in a small office
- Strong advocacy, legal writing, and research skills
- Excellent analytical, organizational, and time management abilities
- High level of computer literacy
- Completion of the Ontario Bar Examinations prior to the start of articles is considered an asset

Compensation & Benefits:

- Salary: $55,000 (10-month contract)
- Work Hours: 35-40 hours weekly (in-person)
- Health and dental benefits (subject to a waiting period)
- Payment of LSO Experiential Training Program Fees

How to Apply:

Please submit the following in PDF format:

- Cover letter outlining your qualifications and interest in the position
- Resume
- University and Law school transcripts
- At least two references (letters preferred)
- Legal writing sample

Send your application to: Rachel Evans, Office Manager at rachel.evans@kclc.clcj.ca.

Applications will be accepted on a rolling basis until the position is filled. We thank all applicants for their interest, however, only candidates selected for an interview will be contacted.
